Student Session Overview

Leadership – In this session participants will be introduced to the Four Pillars of Leadership and discuss the basic needs of followers with respect to trust, stability, compassion, and hope. Participants will get into breakout groups to discuss how leaders can demonstrate these four pillars.

Self-Motivation - Participants in this session will determine what intrinsic and extrinsic motivation is and share examples of each. Participants will then think of their talents and their interest and will discuss their interests in breakout groups. They will then work to connect their interests to a career path.

Job Specific Skills - This session will help students develop self-confidence and identify the role of competence in our jobs. Students will then draw a correlation between confidence and competence.

State Officer Panel - This session will help students develop self-confidence and identify the role of competence in our jobs. Students will then draw a correlation between confidence and competence.

Multicultural Sensitivity - This session will help students develop self-confidence and identify the role of competence in our jobs. Students will then draw a correlation between confidence and competence.
